

K-Love is a valuable resource of positive, encouraging, clean music for our community. Losing that would be a difficult adjustment for the community. Radio stations that encourage high morals and are supportive of families are rare. Please don't take it away.